

NEWARK BLOWS IN
FOR THREE GAMES

Joe McGinnity's Eastern League
guys Play Colts To-Day,
Friday and Saturday.

PITCH REVELLE AND MUIR

Manager Lipe Will Send Old and
New Flinger in Box This Afternoon

"Iron Man" McGinnity's Newark Indians, of the Eastern League, will blow into town from Roanoke this morning for a series of three games with the Champion Colts to-day, Friday and Saturday. The game this afternoon will be called by Umpire Harry Mace at 4 o'clock.

"Dutch" Revelle and Muir have been selected to do the flinging for the Champs in the opening engagement. Revelle probably going the first five rounds and Muir the remaining four. Kiehl and Burke will do the receiving.

The Indians are returning from their Southern training trip, and they are exhibiting the scraps of the New York Yankees and several of the teams in the Southern League. They dropped in at Lynchburg Tuesday and trimmed the Shoemakers by 6 to 0, and yesterday the Roanoke Highlanders left before them, 7 to 6. The Shoemakers and Highlanders did not show particularly good form against the Eastern Leaguers, and, with Revelle and Muir in the box, the Colts expect to annex the opening engagement.

How Colts Line Up.
Manager Lipe last night announced the following batting order of the Champs to-day: Black, left field; Lipe, third base; Kiehl, first base; Smith, center field; Sandherr, shortstop; Tiltman, right field; Wright, second base; Kiehl, catcher; Burke, pitcher; Revelle, pitcher; Muir, pitcher.

The Champions displayed good form in practice yesterday, the infielders scooping in the hot ones in a fashion that made glad the hearts of the few faithful ones on hand. The youngsters banged 'em out in great shape, and all indications now point to a hard hitting team for the coming season. Manager Lipe will have the men out this morning for the final work-out before the game.

Tom Messitt, the Colts' veteran catcher, was on hand yesterday, and worked hard with the pitchers. Bussey also was out, and having returned from Wilmington, N. C., where he was called by the illness of his wife.

Cowan Returns Next Week.
Cowan, the catcher who has been holding out for more money, has agreed to accept the terms of the club and Manager Lipe wired him transportation yesterday morning. He will arrive here early next week and will immediately get into harness.

Manager Lipe said last night that he had not had a conference with Jimmy Ison since last week, and could not say whether or not the second baseman will return. However, friends of Ison say that he will sign with the team next week. Eddie Wright, the Detroit youngster, is showing up well at the second station, and he will give Ison a strenuous run for the position.

Slosson Was Brilliant.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., March 31.—With a splendid spurt of fast balling, making an unfinished run of 167 points, George F. Slosson, the New York veteran, won to-night's game of 152 international world championship series from Calvin Demarest, of Chicago, by a score of 600 to 207.

The game to-morrow afternoon will bring Morningstar and Cline together. Slosson will meet Sutton to-morrow night.

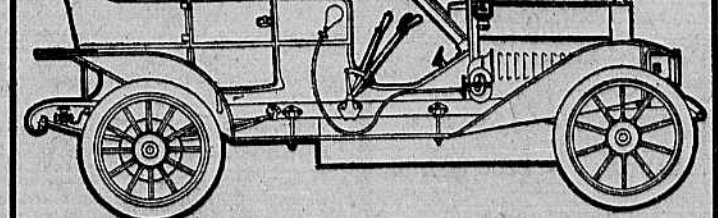

George Sutton, of Chicago, won the matinee game to-day, defeating Louis Cure, of Paris, by a score of 500 to 288.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., March 31.—In a fast and interesting game Richmond College defeated Guilford 3 to 2. In the ninth the Richmond boys again got busy, and by a succession of hits and errors added two more runs to their lead. The Quakers made a desperate effort to win in the ninth, landing on Meredith for a single and two three-baggers for a total of two runs. The pitching of Meredith and the work of Anderson at first were features.

PITCHER WALKER'S FEAT
REGARDED AS MARVELOUS

Only on Seven Other Occasions Since Baseball Was Organized Have Pitchers Equaled His Record in No-Hit Games.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., March 31.—Trainer Lannigan had the following to say to-day regarding Walker's feat yesterday in pitching a no-hit, no-run game against Colgate University: "Some idea of the feat accomplished by Carl Walker, Virginia's pitcher, in yesterday's game against Colgate may be gathered from the fact that it has been accomplished only seven times before during the entire history of organized baseball, as follows: "Pitcher Richmond, of the Worcester National League team, vs. Cleveland, June 12, 1880. "Pitcher John M. Ward, Providence, vs. Buffalo, National League, June 17, 1880. "Pitcher 'Cy' Young, Boston Americans, vs. Athletics, American League, May 5, 1904. "Pitcher Thos. Fisher, Shreveport, vs. Montgomery, Southern Association, September 1, 1906. "Pitcher Charles Evans, Hartford, vs. Bridgeport, Connecticut League, July 21, 1908. "Pitcher Joss, Cleveland, vs. Chicago, American League, October 2, 1908. "The present season's pitcher Covaleski, of the Philadelphia Nationals, accomplished the same feat against Trinity College at Durham, N. C., two weeks ago, and now comes Walker, of Virginia. "Considering the very cold, windy day, with occasional snow flurries, and Walker pitching the entire game with a heavy sweater on, it was probably not only one of the greatest feats in baseball history, but the very greatest. "It is claimed that a former Virginia pitcher accomplished this feat in the early '90s, but Spalding has no record of same. There are no authentic records of it having been accomplished other than by the above."

Lilies	5	3	.625
Pansies	5	3	.625

The teams will line up in the following order: Opals vs. Pearls, Emeralds vs. Rubies, Amethysts vs. Diamonds. The last game between the Amethysts and Diamonds is expected to be the closest of the long line of games played so far. The former five is at the top in the standing of the league, while the Diamonds are in second place and only one game behind the leaders. If the Diamonds win this game they will tie the opponents for first honors, but in losing the Amethysts will hold an undisputed lead. A large crowd of rooters is expected to be on hand to-night, as these contests are free to the public, and the interest in the closing match is widespread through the members of the association and their friends.

GETTING READY FOR VALE MEET

Virginia's Track Team Working
Under Direction of Coach
Lannigan.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., March 31.—Coach Lannigan gave a number of the members of the Virginia track team some fast trials yesterday afternoon. Withshire and Eager took the trials in the half-mile. The time, while not given out, was known to have been very fast, considering that the wind was against them for fully 200 yards at each turn. Quarter-mile trials were taken by Thurlow and Stanton.

In the sprint events, the runners were greatly helped by the wind, but even with this some good time was made, Ashby winning a heat in 10 2-5 seconds. He repeated nicely in the 220, running the distance in 23 seconds. Hector ran the 220 in 22 4-5. Stanton, the Redford, again showed his versatility by doing his hundred in easy fashion in 10 3-5. Burke and Emmes in the 220, and repeated nicely in the hundred, running a dead heat in 10 3-5. Resulted in a very pretty race, Charles Williams and Lucien Carr running a dead heat in 5:10. Hensch, Sloan, Lindsay and Toulmin also took trials in the mile. Martin and Holladay both took trials in the low hurdles. In leaving the hurdles, Martin tripped and sustained a severe fall. Coach Lannigan is very much worried about Martin's condition. The star hurdler is now in the hospital and will probably be several days before he gets out. Lannigan is afraid that the accident will hurt Martin's chances in the Yale meet, as every minute is valuable at this stage of training.

NORFOLK FIGHT

McAlister Fires Opening Gun in Campaign to Drive Out Saloons.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., March 31.—Dr. McAlister, field secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, fired the first gun of the prohibition campaign the league has instituted in Norfolk for the purpose of closing the saloons of the city in Kline Hall, Brambleton, and was given a big ovation. The Auditorium was well crowded. The speaker declared that the league had instituted the fight, confident of the support of the Christian people of the city. He declared that the matter would be laid before the churches and temperance organizations of the city, and that success depended on whether or not they wished the saloon banished. He expressed confidence that the cause would be victorious if active agents were sent to the saloons of the city, and that the force of the State league was assured to the local organization.

Niblo Delights Audiences.
When Fred Niblo, the American humorist-traveler, gave the first of his "travel talks" in the Academy of Music three weeks ago, the small audience that heard him was delighted, and said so.

Last night, when an audience that well filled the playhouse, traveled with the lecturer through "Russia from the Black Sea to Siberia," his listeners must have felt that they were temporarily transported to another world. Realistic scenes of events and places served to illuminate every utterance.

Although a comparatively young man, Niblo has acquired the art of appealing to all audiences, and this was well manifested by the vast crowd of those who heard him last night. He has a charming personality, and his aim seems to be to make his auditors feel that he, with them, is really on "Tales of Travel in Distant Lands."

Is the general topic of all the subjects chosen, and under this head those who attend the series will secure an exact knowledge of the way in which people live in nearly every land under the sun.

Many school children were in the audience last night, and the verdict of a well known educator is, "I know of a better way in which to impress children than in the lecture hall of Mr. Niblo does." There is no lapse in the interest from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Next Wednesday night Mr. Niblo will take his audience through Southern Italy, and this will be especially instructive, as the pictures will show scenes in the section of the country destroyed by the recent earthquake.

"Polly of the Circus" To-Night.
"Polly of the Circus," titled Edith Tallafiero in the title part, is produced by Frederick Thompson, the man who owns Luna Park, and who designed the Hippodrome, New York City. The story of the girl's adventures, especially in the section of the country destroyed by the recent earthquake, is a story of a childhood circus rider, who meets with an accident, is brought to the home of a young minister for treatment, falls in love with him, marries him and lives happily after. DURHAM, N. C., March 31.—Trinity College defeated Lafayette College yesterday afternoon in the first of a series of three games with that institution by the score of 2 to 0. The game was an excellent exhibition of baseball and was witnessed by a large crowd. Gantt was in the box for the local team and pitched a star game, fanning nine men. Schneider, for the visitors, was at his best also, and for a while it looked like a pitchers' battle. He struck out eight men. Both teams pitched fast ball and only three errors were made, two of them being charged up to the visitors. Rutchen and C. West made pretty catches, both hard chances.

At the end of the fifth inning, at which time neither side had scored, Gantt, backed up by Schneider, for two bases and brought home the first man. Score by innings: R. H. E.
